Dear Sir,

I have for sale the following work on Coins:—

Description Historique des Monnaies, Frappées sus L'Empire Romain, Communement apelées "Medailles Impériales."
par Henry Cohen. Deuxième Édition.
1880 — 1888.

Vols 1—4. Bound half morocco.
" 5—8. Still in the original paper covers.

I should be pleased to hear whether you are interested on behalf of your Society or otherwise. Price £80. (English money) carriage forward.

By way of explanation I may add that this is a somewhat rare work and as I understand, most English Societies interested have a copy, it occurred to me that there might be a want of copies in the States.

The offer is subject to its being unsold in the meantime.

Yours faithfully,
W.S. Scott.

Dear Sir:

In response to your letter of December 19th, we have Cohen's second edition, and I do not know of any of our members who would be willing to pay the price you ask for this set.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your memo: of 29th ult (ref: S.P.N./E.) and note your Society have a copy of Cohen's Second Edition.

I presume also the price mentioned by me is considered high, in which case should any of your members wish to secure a copy of this work and will make an offer I am open to consider it.

Thanking you in anticipation for placing the matter before any of your members likely to be interested.

Yours faithfully,
W.S. Scott.
